Program to Make Up New York's $5,000,000 Begins With St. Valentine's Day Party at Hotel Biltmore

Gala Opera Will Help

Women Will Be 5th Avenue Collectors and "Melting Pot" Will Be on Duty

Having obtained $3,500,000, the New York State committee of the European Relief Council yesterday announced it would devote the week beginning tomorrow to an effort to raise $1,500,000 needed to complete the state's quota for the national fund to save 3,500,000 European children from starvation.

The week's program will begin with a Valentine's Day party at the Hotel Biltmore on Monday afternoon and will conclude with a gala performance of "Carmen" at the Metropolitan Opera House the night of Washington's Birthday.

In addition to this, the Fifth Avenue Association has pledged the support of its entire membership in window displays and other forms of advertisement, and during the entire week Fifth Avenue from Thirty-first to Fifty-seventh streets will be covered at all hours by groups of women representing New York's women's clubs and societies, who will carry red balloons and jingle coin boxes for contributions.

In front of the Public Library, at Forty-second Street, on a huge sign-board the outline of a child's face will be shaped with the growth of contributions.

A "melting pot" to hold donations of old silver and gold articles will be set up in Udall & Ballou's jewelry shop on the avenue at Forty-sixth Street early on Monday morning. Mrs. Enrico Caruso, Mrs. Nathan I. Miller, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Henry White and Geraldine Farrar will be present to toss in the first trinkets. Everything that goes into the pot will be melted at the Assay Office and the proceeds turned over to the committee.

Also, on Valentine's Day 100,000 Hoover valentines in the shape of pledge cards will be received by business men in their morning's mail. The week's list of benefit entertainments includes a monster card party on Friday afternoon at the Hotel Pennsylvania, to be given by the Manhattan Federated Clubs. On the night of February 21 the Hotel Majestic will give a bal masque for the fund.

Advance bids for boxes for the performance of "Carmen" total $7,050. Boxes have been taken by Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, $1,000; Mrs. Willard Straight, $1,000; Mortimer Schiff, $1,000; William Thompson, $550; Mrs. Nicholas Brady, $500; Mrs. Peter Larson, $500; Mrs. Edward S. Harkness, $500; Mrs. Stephen Clark, $500, and others. Boxes and seats which have not been sold may be obtained at headquarters of the executive committee, 322 Fifth Avenue.

Yale Corporation Fails To Elect New President

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 12.—The Yale Corporation to-day adjourned without electing a new president of the university. The corporation was in session all day. It issued a statement declaring it would meet again next Saturday and continue its efforts to select a successor to Arthur T. Hadley. The corporation refused to say whether it had offered the presidency to some one and was waiting an answer.

Fashion's Forecast For Spring

FASHIONS so slim and simple that they transform a woman's figure into lines of youth—so capricious and charming that they are Spring herself caught unawares—so subtly touched with Old World elegance they quicken a Period to life in fresh, new tailored modes! Silhouettes that are straight or bouffant, and Paris sponsoring both. In this embarrassment of riches the smart preferences of the fashionable woman govern our offerings of most favored styles! And prices really moderate for fashions of such quality.

Spring Coats Of Velmirage

The collar makes the coat in these luxurious Spring models for immediate wear—deep cape-effects that hint their fashionable Directoire pedigree. Full, belted styles, silk-lined, expertly tailored. Two models, one illustrated.

Other Suits—$35 to $225
All the Modish Fabrics.

Fresh Arrivals in Gowns

The airs and graces of the new Spring Frocks are past cataloguing—as many individual styles as there are women to wear them. Just arrived and arriving daily, the bouffant effects of 1830. Directoire features discreetly adapted—and charming new variants of the straight, simple little coat Dresses and chemise or tunic Frocks that are too becoming to be allowed to go out of style. Enchanting is the word for the collection!

$75 to $250

Tailored Frocks of Navy and Black Tricotine, and Poirer Twill. Navy Grey Brown Beige Afternoon Gowns Taffeta, Canton Crepe, Georgette Crepe, Laces.

Third Floor

The Newest Spring Hats

are fairly alive with a charm that is manifold in its sources. Brightness of color and daring youthfulness of line are the obvious explanations, but the truth lies deeper still. It goes back to the brain that conceived each graceful shape, and the deft fingers that executed it, giving the brim an artful twist, or cleverly placing a bit of trimming—in short, to the artist who designed the charming hats in this comprehensive assortment.
